

JUDGE JAMES M. 5 ZUMWALT

Judge James M. 5 Zumwalt (Andrew 1-John 2-John 3-Adam 4) a native of Polk County, Mo., was born the 17th of October 1841 and is a son of Adam 4 Zumwalt and Loretta M. Byrnside, who were born in Bath County, Va., and Pike County, Mo., July 1, 1807 and 1820 and died in Pike County in 1875 and 1885 respectively. The father, Adam 4 Zumwalt came with his parents to Missouri when St. Louis was a small French village and after residing in several different counties, finally located in Polk County about 1837, and here spent his declining years. He was married in Greene County to Loretta Byrnside (his second wife) having been previously married in Franklin County to Miss Mahala Sups, who died shortly after. He was a life-long Democrat and when a young man served in the Indian wars and also the Mexican War. He and his wife were members of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church and the Baptist Church, respectively. His father, John 3 Zumwalt was of German birth, born in Little York, Va. and was a farmer and mechanic by occupation. While serving in the war of 1812 he was in the battle when the noted Indian Chief, Black Hawk was captured. While living in St. Louis he was engaged in ferry-boating on the Mississippi River. His death occurred in Polk County. His father was born in Germany, John 2 by name, and came to America and assisted the colonists in their struggle for liberty.

Judge James M. Zumwalt remained with his parents until nineteen years of age and after enlisting and serving in the Home Guards for sometime joined the Eighth Cavalry Federal service with which he remained until the close of the War, holding the rank of corporal, and participating in the following engagements: Prairie Grove, Van Buren, Big River Bridge, Chalk Bluff, Bayou Meto Bridge, Little Rock, Dardanella, Claradon, Lewisburg, Bull Creek, and numerous others. After the war he turned his attention to farming and stock-trading and in 1879 engaged in mercantile pursuits, being the first business man of Polktown and has been its first and only postmaster. From 1882 to 1889 he discontinued merchandising but at the latter date resumed business and has been thus engaged up to the present time, his stock being valued at about $3,000. This is an excellent trading point, and he has succeeded admirably in the accumulation of wealth. He is one of the enterprising citizens of the county and for many years has been a Democrat in his political views and in 1884 was elected to the office of county judge. December 6, 1869 he married Elizabeth Long a daughter of Noah Long. She was born in Davis County, West Va. in 1852 and her union with Mr. James M. 5 Zumwalt has been blessed with the birth of eight children: Charles E., attending college at Bolivar; Louisa A., at home; Edward, Lillie, James L., Pearl, May, and an infant son. Mrs. Zumwalt is a member of the Missionary Baptist Church.

Mary Ann 4 (Zumwalt)(Mrs. Richard J.)Harbert

HARBERT---In this city, October 2, 1888, of old age, Mary Ann (Zumwalt)(Mrs. Richard J.) Harbert, wife of Richard J. Harbert, aged 77 years, 2 months and 12 days.

Mary Ann 4 Zumwalt was born July 20, 1811, in Harrison County, Kentucky and moved with her parents to Indiana in 1828 and was married to Richard J. Harbert on 10 December 1829. She was the mother of six children, five of whom are now living as follows:

Martha A. 5 (Harbert)Simmons, who now lives at Blainstown, Iowa.

Joseph W. 5 Harbert who lives in Walla Walla Valley, Washington Territory.

Letitia 5 (Harbert)Blake a resident of Headricks County, Indiana.

Mary A. 5 (Harbert)Camp who married William Camp, a soldier in Company A 24th Iowa Indiana and died in 1867. Mrs. Camp for a number of years has made her home with her parents.

Huldah 5 (Harbert)Rundell, the youngest daughter, is the wife of our townsman G. A. Rundell.

She had eighteen grandchildren, thirteen of whom are still living.

Mary Ann 4 (Zumwalt)Harbert was one of the remaining honored pioneers of Mount Vernon. She with her husband Richard J. Harbert crossed the Mississippi and came into the territory of Iowa in 1844 and first located at Dubuque, where they lived two years when they came to Linn County and settled on the present site of the town of Mount Vernon. Her honored and highly respected husband Richard J. Harbert assisted in 1847 in laying out the village of Mount Vernon and in building many of the first houses erected here and in the surrounding country.

Mary Ann 4 (Zumwalt)Harbert united with the M.E. Church in 1837 and has lived a consistent, blameless Christian life, having so deported herself during all these years as to command the confidence, good will, and esteem of all who know her. She came to this community when it was necessary for neighbor to rely on neighbor; when the spirit of kindness and brotherly love had its best chance for development, and it developed to a rich ripeness. It was characteristic of her life to be very modest and unobtrusive, but the longer she was known and the better she was understood, the more she was appreciated as a woman of singularly pure character and sterling moral worth. This aged couple, Mr. and Mrs. Richard J. Harbert, have together, made life's journey and shared its fortunes for nearly fifty-nine years. They have bravely faced adversities and together have shared prosperity and success. Her departure is an irreparable loss to her husband, to her family, the church, and the community at large, but our sorrow is not for her but who can tell the grief of her aged husband Richard J. Harbert and those who stay in the home made desolate by her death. Yet in the night of grief we hear the voice of hope and looking out across the sea of doubt we see the shore where all shall meet and none shall part.

Her funeral services were conducted by Prof. Hugh Boyd, Thursday afternoon, attended by all of her children and a large number of old friends who were present to pay their respects to one who was always greatly esteemed. Her remains were buried on one of autumn's loveliest days in our peaceful cemetery under an autumn sod. The gentle zephyrs of autumn and the cold blasts of winter will alike pass over it, but she will heed them not. They cannot wake the sleep of death.

Mr. Richard J. Harbert and his daughter Mary Ann 5 (Harbert)Camp, and her son will, we understand, accompany his honored and highly respected son, Joseph W. 5 Harbert to his home in Walla Walla Valley, Washington Territory, where he will kindly furnish his father

Richard J. Harbert a home in his honored old age and provide every comfort that willing hands and loving hearts can suggest, and as far as possible make the remaining years of his father's life peaceful and happy.

CHRISTOPHER PETER 4 ZUMWALT

A short sketch of Christopher Peter 4 Zumwalt's life
(in handwriting of Mrs. Agnes Humphreys)

Christopher Peter 4 Zumwalt came to Oregon in 1845 and was one of Polk County's most respected pioneers. He was born in Missouri, August 12, 1827. His father, Christopher 3 Zumwalt, was a native of Pennsylvania, of German ancestry. He was a Methodist minister and married a Miss Elizabeth Keller. They had nine children, of whom our subject was the youngest. They named him Christopher Peter for his Father? and some other members of the family. When he was an infant his mother died and when he was four years old his father died, his knowledge of his family was slight. He was reared by Mr. Joseph Hugart who was his guardian. When Christopher Peter was only fourteen years old he began to work for $5.00 per month and his board. In 1845 his guardian came to Oregon, although only 18 he drove one of the teams and never missed a day. They had a prosperous journey until they were induced to take the Meek's cutoff route where they met with trouble. Their provisions gave out and they were left in the mountains without anything to eat. They came near losing their lives. The first winter they spent near the present site of Forest Grove. In the spring of 1846 they went to a farm near the present site of Cornwallis. Here Christopher Peter Zumwalt made rails at 50 cents per 100, took orders on the store for payment, lived on wheat and peas and was bare-footed nearly the entire period of two years. He then went to Yamhill Co. and worked for wages until 1849 when he purchased land in Yamhill Co. After two years he came to Polk Co. and took 640 acres where he resided and raised his family. Christopher Peter 4 Zumwalt was a local preacher of the United Brethern Church. He was a hard working man. He prospered greatly. He had followed general farming.

He married Miss Irene Goodrich on August 3, 1849, who was born in Indianapolis, March 17, 1831, a daughter of Carmy Goodrich who came to Oregon in 1845 and took a donation claim in Dayton, Yamhill Co. where he lived until his death in 1860. Mr. and Mrs. Christopher Peter 4 Zumwalt had eleven children, named: John Thompson 5, who died in his twentieth year, Henry 5, who married and resided near his parents, Christina 5, who married Frank Sargent, Mary Ellen 5, who married Lenard Livermore and resided in Eugene City, Sarah 5, who married a W. Updegraff, who died leaving her with two children, Glen O. 5, who married and resided in Polk Co., Frank and Fannie 5 were twins, the latter died in her sixth year. Their youngest child, Fred, died in his sixth year. At this writing they had eighteen grandchildren and one great grandchild. Mr. and Mrs. Christopher Peter 4 Zumwalt were highly esteemed pioneers of 1845 (Oregon pioneers).

This was copied for Oregon history in the year 1893.

Christopher 3 Zumwalt's father, Christopher 2 Zumwalt, was an uncle of Solomon 3 Zumwalt, who resided near Eugene and who was my grandfather.

NANCY (GROCE) MRS. SOLOMON 3 ZUMWALT

Nancy Groce, wife of Solomon 3 Zumwalt was born in St. Charles County in 1811 and died in 1876 in the Mohawk Valley. She crossed the plains with her husband and nine children, six girls and three boys. My grandmother was a brave woman. She had a pony that she rode when she didn't share it with others. I have been told that she walked all day and helped prepare the evening meal. She had pluck and courage.

She never wanted to turn back but pressed on the work that lay before her.

The family spent the winter in Salt Lake Valley and arrived at The Dalles, May 28, 1851. The women and children were taken down the Columbia river in open boats. They had no adventure with the Indians. The family then came up to Lane County, Oregon and settled on a donation claim joining the Blair place. It was there that my grandmother's life was full of good deeds as she and her pony swam the many streams to minister to the sick.

She always had time to spin yarns and knit socks for the boys and stockings that never came above the knees for the girls. Dresses were long, sweeping the floor. What a task it was for her to iron all those ruffles. She did all that besides making all her own soap and I have seen her dry elder berries by the sack.

I think my grandmother, Nancy Groce Zumwalt enjoyed smoking her chalk pipe. She always looked so contented. More so than the cigarette-smoking women of today. It is a fact with them.

This ends a sketch of noble life that has passed to the great beyond.
